Senshin 2021 Nembutsu Seminar

February 13, 2021 4 PM
Dr. Ken Tanaka

Tanaka-sensei will present a lecture titled "Being Buddhists in America Today"
Hints from his new book – Jewels: An Introduction to American Buddhism for Youth, Scouts, and the Young at Heart.

It will be a 90 minute Zoom program with some time at the end for a Q & A session. If you would like to attend the program or if you have any questions, please contact Senshin at senshintemple@gmail.com or Neil Komai at nkomai49@gmail.com.

You will be sent a link for the Zoom lecture about one week prior to the event.

We hope that the COVID-19 pandemic will be under control and we will be able to hold our traditional Senshin Nembutsu Retreat in 2022.

There is no registration fee. Donations are welcome.

Born in 1947 in Yamaguchi, Japan, Dr. Tanaka moved to California at the age of 10. He has graduate degrees in Buddhism from the Institute of Buddhist Studies, Tokyo University and the University of California (Berkeley).

Tanaka-sensei served as Associate Professor and Assistant Dean at IBS for 10 years and a resident priest for 3 years at the Southern Alameda County Buddhist Church. He taught as a Professor of Buddhist Studies at Musashino University for 20 years.

He is the former President of the International Association of Shin Buddhist Studies as well as the Japanese Association for the Study of Buddhism and Psychology.

Dr. Tanaka was the 2017 recipient of the 27th Nakamura Hajime Eastern Study Prize, awarded in conjunction with the Indian Embassy in Tokyo to scholars who distinguish themselves in the field of Indian and Buddhist studies. He was also the object of a one-hour NHK Educational Television documentary series entitled “The Age of Kokoro (heart/mind).”
