YOU ABSOLUTELY CAN'T DO WITHOUT IT,

BUT WHEN YOU DO WITH IT,
WHAT A COLOSSAL MESS!

The “it” of course is the self, me. Shinran Shonin begins with Buddhism as the problem of “What am I?”, and ends with “The self-power I is hopeless!”

And in that experience, he goes beyond the self, or in the language of Jodoshinshu, “he is lifted beyond the self”. He declares that everything the self perceives, conceives, imagines, etc. is empty, vain, and void of true reality, and that only what is called the Nembutsu is true. The issue then is, “Is the self such a mess?”, and, “What is the Nembutsu?” Pretty simple huh? That’s why our encounter with Buddhism is a lifetime endeavor. Believing this or believing that is of little use – we are not a religion of faith. Nor are we a religion of deeds, since there is no set practice by the self that can take us beyond the self. Hence we say that our daily life is our practice, to be mindful and pay attention in everything that we do. And even this is impossibly difficult.

Our ego-self then, is seen to be what makes us what we are, and at the same time, what prevents us from seeing beyond our self-constructed cage. What a work of art is man, and at the same time, what a colossal Bozo. Within any single being is the potential for heavenly activity and mass murder. The real enemy is finally in sight, and it is me. Why does such a seemingly simple awareness take so long, even when vaguely sensed? Youth is indeed wasted on youth, and even age tends not to take advantage of its proximity to truth. I have in the past 43 years seen Senshinji members truly grow in contentment, honesty, sharing, humor, and enjoyment of life – and at the same time nodding in deepening agreement with Shinran Shonin that we are at the same time, vain, empty and self-serving Bozos. Nembutsu Bozos Banzai!

SENSHIN BUDDHIST TEMPLE MEMBERSHIP

June 2011

Dear Members,

Greetings! This is our annual request to our members to remit their membership dues for the year 2011. The dues, together with fundraising events and donations, generate the income to operate Senshin so that our members can enjoy the many temple activities and services. The dues allow us to provide the privilege of having a full time minister.

Seniors (80 years this year or over) are exempt from paying Senshin membership dues. However, seniors wishing to receive the Wheel of Dharma newsletter must pay the $94 BCA membership. For couples with one senior member, the spouse is asked to pay the "Individual Adult Membership".

PHOTOS OF THE NEW EDUCATION BUILDING

Well, as usual, we had some lingering issues to address before the Education Building work was fully completed. The built-in display shelf and the Tokonoma area required some additional modifications and some subsequent re-finishing. That job was concluded in the first week of May. All of the furniture pieces were placed into the various rooms, including those that had to be assembled and attached to the walls of the office area. Reverend Mas and Janice have been extremely busy moving things into the new office spaces, especially since they had so much to sort through before they could actually move. As of the first of May, the offices were fairly organized, but it is expected that they will not have been fully set up until the end of May. Henry Matsumura has been diligently working to set up the internet connections and telephone lines, as well as to set up the computers and peripherals for Rev. Mas and Janice.

Reverend Mas' study class room and the main lounge/library were also in pretty good shape, but there are some minor repairs/corrections that have to be finished (especially with regard to the floors), but those should have been completed, again by the end of May. When you have a chance to inspect the rooms, check out the Tokonoma in the lounge/library area. There is a beautiful decorative wood piece that was donated and sculpted by Ed Ito that sets the Tokonoma apart from the adjoining built-in cabinetry. The second minister's room, as mentioned previously, will be used by the SDDSTL Hongwanji Place bookstore on a temporary basis until the store finds a new location in Little Tokyo or Senshin hires a second minister, whichever comes first. This is a very informal agreement between Senshin and the store, and it is an orei-based arrangement.

The concrete walkway that fronts the Education Building on the patio/garden side was completely replaced due to concerns for pedestrian safety, caused by uneven and disjointed surfaces, and because of the patchwork appearance that was a result of the new footings that were installed at either end of the building. The new walkway will also make for smoother transport of caskets from the parking lot to the front of the Hondo building.

The breezeway covering along the east side of the Social Hall has been removed due to severe water damage (wood rot) and termite destruction. It was in very bad shape and appeared to be on the verge of collapse at the end nearest to 36th Place. The Board will ultimately decide on a treatment for the exterior of the Social Hall, whether that includes a replacement breezeway cover or not. The 36th Place side of the building also will be reviewed for appropriate modifications. At some point in time, consideration will also be given to updating and modernizing various parts of the Social Hall to make it a better functioning facility. The reality is that building a new Social Hall structure is a long ways off, so we need to fix up the one that we have.

Please stop by Senshin to see what your Dana has provided. Preferably, we would like to have you all come out for Sunday services, but if not, visit during the week and Rev. Mas will be happy to give you the "full tour" (he does not charge a fee!).

SENSHINJI HATSUBON & BON ODORI

洗心寺

初盆

盆踊り

In Jōdoshinshū, Obon is called Kangi-e, or The Gathering of Joy. It is the major festival of our Buddhist calendar year. It is a memorial service and celebration in memory of our ancestors and all who have died. It is an occasion to remember our indebtedness to all who have gone before us, to appreciate and thank those lives and to reaffirm the sanctity of all living beings. In order to have this appreciation, we are called to the Obon gathering to dance, however embarrassed or however boastfully – so that in the meditation of dancing, we can momentarily forget the self. It is at this moment, that we suddenly remember our indebtedness to others and truly dance joyfully – happiness is the ego getting its way, joy is being free of ego. Senshin has always begun the Obon dances with the Awa Odori, the Dance of Fools. Within the song is the famous line: Odoru aho ni miru aho. Onaji aho nara odoranya son son – A dancing fool and a watching fool, since they are both fools, what a waste not to dance. To truly dance Bon Odori is to be truly connected. It must be done without a calculating mind, without a mind needing to always be in control. It is “just dancing” in its purest form – without guile, without pretense, without embarrassment, without ego asserting itself in any direction. We invite you to connect with each other and all things living and dead in this Gathering of Joy. After the dancing, you are invited to Oshōkō in the Hondō and light one or several of the 1000 oil lamps in the courtyard made by Senshin member Mr. Leo Sugano. You are invited to light an oil lamp in memory of a loved one, one you are indebted to, friend and enemy alike. Following the lighting of the memorial lamps will be an otoki of cold noodles and a Horaku presentation by the Kinnara Taiko, and others.
